

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

IUPAP Young Scientist Prize in Atomic, Molecular and Optical Physics 2008

Nominations are being sought for the Young Scientist Prize in Atomic, Molecular and Optical (AMO) Physics which will be awarded by the International Union of Pure and Applied Physics through the Commission C15 (AMO Physics) for the second time in 2008. The prize will be awarded during the XXI International Conference on Atomic Physics, to be held in Storrs, CT, USA, July 27 – August 2, 2008. The Prize includes a medal, a $1000 award and an invited presentation at XXI ICAP.

The nominee is expected to have made original and outstanding contributions to the field of AMO physics. The leading personal contribution of the recipient to the achievement must be clearly identifiable when the work was performed in collaboration. Nominees for the prize should have a maximum of 8 years of research experience (excluding career interruption) following the PhD on January 1, 2008.

Nominations should include:

- A letter of not more than 1.000 words evaluating the nominee's achievements and identifying the specific work to be recognized.
- A curriculum vitae including all publications.
- A brief biographical sketch not exceeding two pages.

Self-nominations will not be considered. Nominations should be sent to the chair of IUPAP- C15:

Prof. J. Burgdörfer, Institute for Theoretical Physics, Vienna University of Technology, Wiedner Hauptstraße 8-10/E136, 1040 Vienna, Austria, EU or iupap@tuwien.ac.at.

Deadline is February 1, 2008.
